ALL SORTS.

Mrs. Kinkad's "fourth talk" will be of Paris.

Judge Hawley and daughter Lilie were among the arrivals yesterday morning.

He—Maud, if I only dared to kiss you! She—Alonso, whatever you are, don't be a coward.

Mrs. Munckton, formerly of this city, has been committed to the Stockton Insane Asylum.

Oliver Roberts has leased the Arlington to Stein Bros. of Virginia who will take possession in a few days.

Frank McCullough led the sharpshooters at the Park Sunday with a score of 43 for the first class. Mayo ran his up to 44 in the second class. Looks as if Mayo ought to change places with McCullough.

The public stands aghast at the big scandal in the Astor family. The fact that the family is in Ward McAllister's 400 does not seem to have given it any immunity from the troubles which upset the Deacon and Hetherington outfits.

A heavy fund is being raised in Wall street, New York, to defeat the Presidential aspirations of Senator Hill. It is said that at a meeting held last Friday $30,000 was subscribed for that purpose, and the idea was to increase the fund to $100,000.

The first of the course of lectures under the auspices of the Chautauquan Society comes off in the M. E. Church in this city this evening. Rev. C. L. Logans subject will be "Columbus," and Lieutenant Governor Ponjude's, "Settlement and Growth of America." Admission free.

The newspapers of San Francisco are very choice in their way of speaking, as a general thing. Did the readers ever notice that when speaking of Sidney Bell they always say "murderer," but when speaking of Nagle, the man who murdered poor old Dave Terry, they always say "killed." The San Francisco press, we should judge, play the old game of "button, button who has the button?" only they say, "sack, sack, who carries the sack?"—Valley Review.

U. S. Circuit Court.

There was a large attendance in the U. S. Circuit Court yesterday. There was a good sized docket, and lawyers were there from all over the State. Among the legal fraternity present were Thos. Wren, Henry Mayenbaum, R. M. Clarke, Henry Rives, F. A. Huffaker, Clayton Belknap, J. D. Torreyson, S. Summerfield, Wm. Woodburn, U. S. Attorney Whitecher, D. W. Virgin, J. R. Judge, Ed. Vanderleith, M. C. Tilden and J. L. Wines.

The following business was transacted:

Hayden vs. Nicholls. Answer stricken out and time given to file new answer.

Fouts vs. Burke. Dumourrer overruled, and first rule day in May given to answer.

On motion of U. S. Attorney Whitecher, M. C. Tilden was admitted to practice in the U. S. Courts.

Adjourned until 10 o'clock today.

Two State Conventions.

The State Committee met in Virginia City yesterday. It was decided to hold two State Conventions, the first in Virginia City, April 30th, to elect delegates to the National Convention, and the second in Reno, date unset, to elect delegates to the State Convention. The primaries will be held on the 16th of April. The basis of representation was made on the Congressional vote of last election, as follows:

Churchill 2, Douglas 5, Elko 14, Esmeralda 9, Eureka 7, Humboldt 6, Lander 6, Lincoln 6, Lyon 8, Nye 3, Ormsby 12, Storey 30, Washoe 18, White Pine 5. Total, 131.

Another "Talk."

Mrs. Kinkad will shortly give another one of her charming "talks" at the residence of Judge Bigelow. This one will give the audience an idea of what the talker saw in Switzerland, a land teeming with beautiful scenery, romance and reminiscence. The talk will take place on Thursday evening, and a large attendance is expected.

That Fight.

No one seems to know whether or not the lynx and dog fight really took place. It is claimed by some that the fight took place in a private stall and the dog won. At any rate the lynx is dead. There was however no public exhibition.

OVERLOOKED NEVADA.

We believe in giving everybody credit for his or her deeds of charity, and do not wish to detract one iota from the praise due Senator James G. Fair, late of Nevada, for his bequest for charitable purposes to the city of San Francisco, but think it a little surprising that he should have so completely forgotten the people who gave him a seat in the United States Senate and the State where he made his wealth, when there are so many worthy institutions in Nevada. The Senator might have done worse than have left some of his wealth to the Orphan's Home at Carson or for the support of the Sisters' schools in Reno and Virginia, to the Bishop's School for Girls or endowed the University with a few thousands. Perhaps, however, the Senator does not consider himself under any obligations for the honor bestowed upon him, as he bought and paid for it. Of all the men who have made their millions in this State, not one of them have left a nickel to any institution within our borders.—Reno Gazette.

The Gazette need not get so excited over Fair's "promise" to give money to the Orphan's. He merely incorporated his idea in a will as a sop to public opinion. After he dies there will be another will brought to light and its dollars to door knobs that the Orphans will never get a penny of it. If Fair wants to distinguish himself by charity he can begin building the Asylum in his life time, a thing which he hasn't the slightest intention of doing.

Flowers and Seeds.

The lover of flowers can derive much pleasure in looking over the beautiful catalogues sent out by all the leading florists, and anticipating the interest of watching the growth and perfection of the many novelties they introduce. Of the dozen received by the writer this year there is none better or more attractive than the old stand-by "Vick's Floral Guide." The story circulated that the firm had suspended business is utterly untrue. They offer just as great inducements this year as ever and will do just as well by both old and new customers. From personal experience this guarantee is given. If you have not received their catalogue send for one and you will have no difficulty in making out an order. The trouble will be to know when to stop making it out. Their prices are as low as any and lower than most houses.

A Nevada Champion.

An old resident of Nevada, Col. Grandelmeier, has not gone back on his early home and waxes wroth over the way Congress attempted to belittle the State. He said to a Post reporter:

"They can talk about the State of Nevada being played out, but let me tell you that Nevada is one of the first States in the Union.

"Its wealth is yet untold, and what it has in sight will probably never be appreciated until the nation again needs silver and has to send to the West to get it. It seems that there is no brain comprehensive enough to grasp the situation of Nevada, as it is surrounded by a mountainous region of untold wealth. The State saved the reputation of the nation when money was needed, and if silver was good enough for the people then it ought to be now."

Returns of the Searching Party.

The Austin Advocate has the following: The searching party that went out to solve the problem of Beauman's disappearance have returned. They report finding his watch, clothes and some money about eighty yards from the saddle and blanket. It appears that the saddle was found about six or seven miles from his ranch instead of 12 miles from here as reported. The supposition now is that his horse gave out, and that he turned him loose and tried to walk to the place and perished, the snow being about three feet deep on a level at the time. The coyotes, no doubt did the rest.

The Creameries.

All the machinery for the large creamery in Mason Valley passed through here the first of the week, and it is calculated that it will set up and in running order by the middle of next month.

The lower creamery, which is a smaller one, also has the machinery on the ground, we understand, and will be ready for business in a couple of weeks.—Lyon County Times.

A Practical Test.

A new crowd has taken possession of the Hale & Norcross. It was claimed in the Fox suit that the mine could easily be paying dividends if honestly managed.

A very good practical test can now be made of the truth or falsity of this assertion, by the new management. If this mine pays dividends it will show that the past management has been bad, and if the lesson taught the Norcross managers can be instilled into the heads of some of the other companies, the suit will not have been brought in vain.

For years the Comstock has been worked for a few insiders, and the public has ceased to look to the mines as a good investment.

The trouble all arises from the fact that stockholders in mines are not allowed to inspect their own property or even make any inquiries about it, as stockholders in other properties are allowed to do.

The next Legislature should take hold of the matter and see that investors are not at the mercy of schemers.

Unless this reform is speedily accomplished the future of the State becomes a matter of very serious consideration.

Where to Get Their Votes.

The Elko Independent says: "If our State officers persist in buying their supplies in San Francisco, without giving the people of the State a chance to bid on equal terms, wouldn't it be a good idea to tell them to go to California for votes when they come up for re-election?"

The APPEAL has been advocating this idea for many years, but the nominating conventions never seem to take the welfare of the State into consideration. If the newspapers of the State would band together and refuse to support candidates who had the reputation of sending State money to California for supplies, the politicians would not dare to nominate them.

Mining Notice.

There will be a meeting of the miners on March 22, 1882, at Pete Anderson's, Silver Lake Mining District. All owners or other interested parties are respectfully invited to be present, as business of importance is to be transacted.
